IMPORTANT NOTICE

Members and subscribers who wish to complete their sets of the American Journal of Archaeology may secure very favorable terms at this time by communicating with the Office of the Institute. In going over our stock, we find that the following numbers of the Journal are almost exhausted, namely, Volume XIII (1909), No. 3, and Volume XIV (1910), Nos. 1 and 2. We also are greatly in need of additional copies of the Bulletin of the Archaeological Institute, Volume I (1910), No. 1. Members who have these numbers in their possession and do not care to keep them to complete their sets will confer a great favor by sending them promptly to the Office of the Institute.

Address: The General Secretary, Archaeological Institute of America, The Octagon, Washington, D. C.

TO
NEW MEMBERS OF THE INSTITUTE AND TO LIBRARIES

In order to encourage and facilitate the forming of complete sets of the JOURNAL OF THE INSTITUTE the Council allows

Members of the Institute who have joined since 1897, and thus have not received all the volumes of the JOURNAL, to complete their sets by the payment of Three-fifths the Ordinary Price, or $3.00 instead of $5.00 a volume. Those who desire six or more volumes may obtain them at half-price, or $2.50 a volume.

Libraries
which shall place the JOURNAL upon their lists of periodicals, may obtain the

First Sixteen Volumes, 1897-1912, at $40.00 instead of $80.00 for the Set.

Libraries which have partial sets may complete them at the terms offered to members of the Institute.

These offers can remain open only as long as the supply of volumes set apart for the purpose continues.

THUCYDIDES, BOOK VI, in the College Series of Greek Authors (Edited by Charles Forster Smith, Professor of Greek and Classical Philology in the University of Wisconsin).

PRICE, $1.50

This edition of one of the most dramatic books in the great historian's work is based on that of the eminent German scholar, Classen, as revised by Steup.

Like books I, III, V, and VII, already published, this book contains the latest philological material. Besides notes, it has full critical apparatus, indexes, and maps illustrating the topography of Sicily and the military movements connected with the siege of Syracuse.

It is in every way a worthy addition to the scholarly and ably edited College Series of Greek Authors.
